Instructions and Checklist for International Students

International students in need of an F1 Student Visa must present official documents at least six months in advance of the semester's start date. In addition to the requirements of the specific program, the following items are needed to process an application for admission:

- Transcript evaluation, overall and course by course, completed by World Education Services (WES). Official evaluations must be sent directly from World Education Services to the Office of Graduate Admissions in lieu of official transcripts from countries other than the United States. To contact WES, log onto www.wes.org.
- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of 550 or higher on paper test (computer generated: 213 or higher). Scores must be from within the last three years. To contact TOEFL, log onto www.toefl.org.

If accepted to the university, a nonrefundable tuition deposit will be required before issuance of an F1 Student Visa form to the student. As required by law, candidates must be full-time students (9 or more graduate credits per semester). Candidates should be prepared to assume full financial responsibility for educational and personal expenses in the United States. The university provides limited housing for graduate students; therefore, students may be responsible for their own accommodations and transportation. This school is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant students.

Reactivation of a Previous Application for Admission

Students should check the "Reactivation" box if they were previously accepted or enrolled in GCU within the past year and are enrolling in the same academic program and have not attended another institution during that separation from Georgian Court University. There is no application fee required with reactivation. Students on an official leave of absence from the university within the last two semesters can obtain registration materials directly from the Office of the Registrar.
