Georgian Court University and the Center for FaithJustice invite you to apply for

MercyworX

June 25 - 30, 2017

IMMERSE YOURSELF in a unique experience of direct service and Catholic social teaching ... all while earning 3 college credits! MercyworX is designed to provide service-oriented high school students with a unique opportunity to live on campus, gain experience in a traditional university classroom, engage with community partners, and reflect upon these experiences with their peers in a retreat-style format.

Together with a leadership team from the Center for FaithJustice, participants will work with Georgian Court University faculty, students, staff, and administration throughout their week on campus in addition to two weeks of online instruction.

Admission to this pilot program is open to rising seniors and exceptional rising juniors.

Tuition & Fees	$1,000
Application deadline	May 12, 2017

Space is limited! Early applications are strongly encouraged and will receive priority consideration.
