Mrs. Gould’s 17th Annual Holiday Social

The tradition continues for many as they start their holiday season with the Goulds. The Mansion at Georgian Court will be aglow with cheer as you join us for the 17th Annual Holiday Social. Celebrate the holidays with Mrs. Gould and her special guest Lucille LeSueur, a 1920s chorus girl who advanced her career and became film legend Joan Crawford (1904–1977).

Location: The Mansion

Dates: November 6, 7, 8, 10, 13, 14, 15, 27, 28, 29 December 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 11, 12, 13, 15, 18, 19, 20 (Sunday, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays); 11:30 AM

Cost: $45 per person; includes performance and tea luncheon. Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door. For groups of 20 or more, please call for discount pricing.
New Year’s Day with Maestro Anthony LaGruth

Continuing the Georgian Court tradition, Maestro Anthony LaGruth will lead his orchestra as we kick off 2019 with a musical celebration. The joyous selections will be as light as champagne bubbles, with both contemporary and classical pieces. A buffet brunch, strong coffees and teas, mimosas, and Bloody Marys will be served.

Location: Casino Auditorium

Date: January 1 (Tuesday); 11:00 AM brunch, 12:00 PM concert

Cost: $47 per person, includes brunch, beverages, and concert. Tickets must be purchased in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door. (Permit #248793 Application Pending)
For more than 30 years, David Gallo, Ph.D., has been at the forefront of ocean exploration, participating in and being witness to the development of new technologies and scientific discoveries that shape our view of Planet Earth. He has participated in expeditions to all of the world’s oceans and was one of the first scientists to use a combination of robots and submarines to explore the deep seafloor. Most recently, he co-led an expedition to create the first detailed and comprehensive map of the RMS Titanic. He also co-led the successful U.S. effort to locate the wreck site of Air France Flight 447. He is currently involved in planning a series of expeditions to the Mediterranean on the trail of the Atlantis myth and an Antarctic expedition to locate the remains of Ernest Shackleton’s ship Endeavor.

Dr. Gallo serves as senior advisor for strategic initiatives at the Center for Climate and Life of the Earth Institute at Columbia University. Previously, he was director of special projects at the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution—a preeminent, globally recognized scientific laboratory. He holds a Ph.D. in Oceanography from the University of Rhode Island. Dr. Gallo has appeared in numerous documentaries on the Discovery Channel, History Channel, and National Geographic and has been featured on numerous television news programs and networks, including the Weather Channel, PBS’s Need to Know, MSNBC’s The Ed Show, NBC’s Today Show, and Face the Nation. He is currently a CNN Ocean Analyst.

Location: Casino Auditorium

Date: October 17 (Wednesday); 6:00 PM

Cost: FREE. Tickets must be reserved online in advance; no tickets will be issued at the door.
TEA & TRADITIONS

Learn about tea and food customs with Judith Krall-Russo, certified tea specialist and food historian.

FOOD, FASHION & TEA FROM JANE AUSTEN TO QUEEN VICTORIA

Jane Austen’s life in the Regency Era has many similarities to the Victorian Era but also many differences. Learn about tea, food, fashion, and more during these two time periods. Discover how the Industrial Revolution had an impact on both eras. Light refreshments will be served following the presentation.

Location: The Mansion
Date: October 23 (Tuesday); 1:00 PM
Cost: $20 per person; Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door.

EATING & DRINKING CUSTOMS DURING THE CIVIL WAR

As you can imagine, life during the Civil War was tough for soldiers and civilians alike. The lingering war made many harsh demands on both food and everyday essentials. As the war progressed, everyday food items became scarce, such as coffee, tea, and wheat. During this presentation, learn what food substitutes soldiers and civilians used to meet everyday needs and the advantages the North had over the South with regard to 19th-century agriculture and industrial practices. Discover how the South was dependent on the North for many of its major food essentials prior to the war. Learn also how the war ushered in a new era of food processing, transportation, and new social attitudes. Light refreshments will be served following the presentation.

Location: Casino Ballroom
Date: November 6 (Tuesday); 10:00 AM
Cost: $20 per person; Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door.
Join Sal St. George of St. George Living History Productions for a look into the life and career of James Cagney and Bud Abbott.

YANKEE DOODLE DANDY: THE BACKSTORY OF THE JAMES CAGNEY CLASSIC

A red, white and blue celebration! Relive the fascinating backstory of James Cagney’s award-winning portrayal of George M. Cohan in the beloved 1942 musical Yankee Doodle Dandy. Discover why Cohan personally selected Cagney (1899–1986) to portray him and the personal dilemma that convinced Cagney to star in this movie. Learn about Cagney’s family members who appeared in front of, and behind, the scenes.

Cagney received an Academy Award for Best Actor for the film, which also earned Academy Awards for Best Musical Score and Best Sound, along with five other nominations. The lecture will include select clips from the film.

Location: Little Theatre
Date: October 29 (Monday); 6:00 PM
Cost: $10 per person in advance; $15 per person at the door; reservations required.
BUD ABBOTT: THE FORGOTTEN FUNNYMAN

During their quarter of a century together, the comedy team of Bud Abbott (1897–1974) and Lou Costello (1906–1959) conquered the stage, radio, movies, and television. After the untimely death of his comedy partner, Bud retired to his home in Woodland Hills, California.

In 1972, Sal St. George had the good fortune of meeting Bud and Betty, his wife of 55 years, in their home. Mr. St. George recently rediscovered his long-lost audiotape of a conversation from that visit, in which Bud fondly reminisced about his life as part of one of America’s most beloved comedy teams. During the conversation, the elder comedian reflected on how he met Lou, their movies, Lou’s personal tragedies, why they ended their partnership, plus his own financial and health difficulties after Lou’s passing.

Included in this program are notes from interviews with TV pioneer Steve Allen; Patty Andrews of the Andrews Sisters; Glenn Strange, who played Frankenstein’s monster in Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein; comedian Joe Besser, Abbott and Costello’s manager Eddie Sherman; Candy Candido, Bud’s comedy partner after Lou’s passing; and others. For the first time in 40 years, one of Bud Abbott’s last interviews is available for fans to enjoy and study.

Location: Little Theatre
Date: December 12 (Wednesday); 6:00 PM
Cost: $10 per person in advance; $15 per person at the door; reservations required.
CONSTITUTION DAY COMMEMORATION: GUANTÁNAMO BAY, MILITARY TRIALS & FOREVER PRISONERS

“Pick-and-choose patriotism” is how the U.S. government approach to Guantánamo Bay was described by a defense lawyer in the U.S. Military Commissions in Guantánamo Bay, Cuba. Guantánamo Bay is simultaneously within and outside U.S. legal systems, creating what can be understood as “selective constitutionalism,” with the U.S. Constitution inapplicable in certain respects. Marny Requa, J.D., GCU associate professor of criminal justice and homeland security and director of the criminal justice and human rights program, will put a spotlight on Guantánamo Bay. She’ll cover use of the naval base for military detentions since 2002, the position of detainees, and the few cases tried by the commissions. Moderated by Scott H. Bennett, GCU professor of history and chair of the Department of History, Geography, and Political Science, legal and political dilemmas related to the military base will be discussed along with potential alternatives for Guantánamo’s “forever prisoners.”

Location: McAuley Heritage Center
Date: September 17 (Monday); 6:00 PM
Cost: FREE. Tickets must be reserved online in advance; no tickets will be issued at the door.
MARCHING IN MY FATHER’S FOOTSTEPS: VISITING THE SITE OF CAPTURE

GCU staff member Stacey Spina’s lighthearted presentation about a serious event in the nation’s and her family’s history, will take you along her journey to find the spot where her father was captured by the German army in 1944. Using story, her father’s memoirs, photographs, and short video clips, Ms. Spina will recount how she searched out the spot where her father’s life changed forever.

Location: Little Theatre
Date: November 13 (Tuesday); 6:00 PM
Cost: FREE. Tickets must be reserved online in advance; no tickets will be issued at the door.
Garden Variety

Fall Arboretum Tour

Celebrate National Public Gardens Day with a walking tour of the trees and gardens in GCU’s Sister Mary Grace Burns Arboretum. You’ll see the LEED Gold-certified Wellness Center’s living roof, and the Wellness Center, Puny, Italian, Japanese, Formal, and Sunken Gardens, learning about the historic sculptures and statuary along the way.

Note: In the event of inclement weather, the tour will be cancelled and refunds issued.

Location: Jeffries Hall; east entrance adjacent to Parking Lot A

Date: October 26 (Friday); 1:30–3:30 PM

Cost: $10 per person; limited availability. Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door.

BOOK DISCUSSION & SIGNING WITH AUTHOR PATRICIA BURKE ’70

Georgian Court alumna Patricia H. Burke ’70 spent more than a decade researching the life of artist and ornithologist Gerard Rutgers Hardenbergh (1856–1915), which culminated in the recent publication of Gerard Rutgers Hardenbergh, Artist and Ornithologist. Hardenbergh, a great-great-grandson of the first president of Rutgers University, lived most of his life in New Brunswick and Bay Head, New Jersey, where he drew inspiration for his subject matter. He painted birds in their natural habitat as well as fish, hunting dogs, landscapes, and seascapes, and also hand-painted porcelain plates. The book brings together images of over 180 of Hardenbergh’s works into one collection. Ms. Burke, a historian, museum director, university professor, and author, joins GCU for a book discussion about her latest work. A book signing will follow the presentation. Books will be available for purchase.

Location: Sister Mary Joseph Cunningham Library

Date: October 18 (Thursday); 6:30 PM

Cost: FREE; no tickets required.
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH DAY OF ACTION

Nationally, 1 in 3 women and 1 in 4 men have been victims of some form of physical violence by an intimate partner within their lifetime. College women ages 18 to 24 have the greatest risk of experiencing intimate partner violence. Join EMPOWER to take the pledge of nonviolence, learn more about intimate partner violence, and for an interactive display of resources, community partners, trauma-informed yoga, and many more activities.

The GCU EMPOWER program engages the campus in preventing, responding, and advocating against sexual assault and relationship violence while promoting social change. It is supported by a grant from the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) in the U.S. Department of Justice.

Musical Storytelling with Maestro Anthony LaGruth

Learn the stories behind some of the world’s best known composers and music from Maestro Anthony LaGruth, principal conductor and music director of the Livingston Symphony Orchestra. Hear musical excerpts as you explore the backgrounds of these iconic artists and their music.

WHAT MAKES OPERA GRAND

A large story . . . or an intimate one. A large chorus or a single voice. A large orchestra or a solo instrument. An extravagant set or a barren stage. All of these things, seemingly contradictory, contribute to the lavish world of grand opera, but they only scratch the surface! How these things come together, how music enriches them, how the result makes you feel . . . are what makes opera grand!

Location: North Dining Room
Date: October 12 (Friday); 6:30 PM
Cost: $43 per person; includes a multicourse dinner and a multimedia lecture; limited seating. Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door.
EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT MUSIC, BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK

Did you ever wonder what the difference was between a symphony and a philharmonic? Why is a French horn French? What does a conductor actually do—and does the orchestra really need one? Join us for an exciting evening of questions answered by Maestro Anthony LaGruth. Bring your best questions and be a part of the learning journey!

Location: North Dining Room
Date: December 14 (Friday); 6:30 PM
Cost: $43 per person; includes a multicourse dinner and a multimedia lecture; limited seating. Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door.
Adventures in Fine Art

Explore the treasures and cuisines of other cultures with Lisa Festa, Ph.D., GCU associate professor of art history. Enjoy a multicourse dinner and a multimedia presentation with artistic discussion during dessert and coffee.

THE ART OF WAR

A historian is noted as saying that “art and war are old companions,” and many military leaders felt that art could capture the true essence of war. Although artists have been capturing the images of war for years, World War I marked the first time that the U.S. government commissioned artists to capture a war effort in the hopes that the artists could provide a historical record and stir up support for the war. Join Dr. Festa as she shows and discusses pieces of art from antiquity to World War II.

Location: North Dining Room

Date: November 9 (Friday); 6:30 PM

Cost: $43 per person; includes a multicourse dinner and a multimedia lecture; limited seating. Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door.
“VISITING” THE VATICAN FROM GEORGIAN COURT

From the comfort of GCU, Dr. Festa will transport you to the Vatican and guide you through its many treasures. Home to masterpieces by Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael, the Vatican holds one of the world’s greatest art collections. Hear about it all, from Raphael’s The Transfiguration and Caravaggio’s The Entombment of Christ to the awe-inspiring Sistine Chapel.

Location:  North Dining Room
Date:  December 7 (Friday); 6:30 PM
Cost:  $43 per person; includes a multicourse dinner and a multimedia lecture; limited seating. Tickets must be purchased online in advance; no tickets will be sold at the door.
Excursions

Join us for bus trips to New York and Pennsylvania—and leave the details to us.

A Taste & History of Hyde Park: FDR Home & Museum Tour with Lunch & Tour at the CIA

Enjoy lunch at one of the Culinary Institute of America (CIA) family of restaurants, which provide a dining experience inspired by regional cuisine and re-envisioned through the lens of modern techniques, cooked and served by CIA students. After lunch, enjoy a student-guided tour of the renowned school, an elite training ground for culinary professionals. Finally, take a short drive to Springwood, the home of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, where you will enjoy a guided tour and time in the museum. This is the estate that President Roosevelt considered home, and it contains the first presidential library in the United States.

Date: September 12 (Wednesday); bus leaves from Parking Lot A at 8:30 AM sharp; returns at approximately 6:30 PM.

Cost: $135 per person; includes round-trip bus transportation, bus snacks, guided tour, lunch, driver’s gratuity, and trip leader. Minimum of 35 guests required.
CHRISTMAS CAROLERS, CASTLE & CRÈCHES: BEAUTIFUL BUCKS COUNTY HOLIDAY ADVENTURE

Celebrate the holidays in beautiful Bucks County, Pennsylvania, where you’ll start with a visit to Byers’ Choice Ltd., where they have been handcrafting Caroler® figurines for over 35 years. Cookies and juice will welcome the group upon arrival. Start with a walk down the cobblestone street scene straight out of Dickensian London, and then explore the Christmas Museum, with displays of Carolers past and present, as well as depictions of Christmas traditions from around the world. Of special note is the observation deck from which you can watch Byers’ Choice artisans bring the Carolers to life. Be sure to view the Crèche Room, which holds a collection of more than 200 nativity scenes from around the world. Finally, stop in at the Gift Emporium, where you will find a wide variety of Carolers and other gifts. You will then have the opportunity to experience the Glencairn Museum’s “Christmas in the Castle” tour, featuring the famous World Nativities exhibit—a must-see at this time of year. Enjoy dinner in festive Peddler’s Village before a magical bus ride through the magic of more than three million lights illuminating acres of farmland at the Shady Brook Farm Holiday Light Show!

Date: December 4 (Tuesday); bus leaves from the GCU Seventh Street Gate at 9:30 AM sharp; returns at approximately 6:30 PM.

Cost: $115 per person; includes round-trip bus transportation, bus snacks, admissions, guided tour, dinner, driver’s gratuity, and trip leader. Minimum of 35 guests required.
Come on out to one of GCU’s athletic events and cheer on the Lions. Dates are subject to change; visit www.gculions.com for the latest news, updated information, pricing, and away game schedules.
