TRIO-Student Support Services Consent Form for Release of Information about Student
Confidentiality of Information

Family and student information at TRIO-SSS is kept confidential and will not be released without permission or in keeping with laws and regulations. Financial and all other information you provide to the TRIO-SSS program is accessible to the U.S. Department of Education. The information is protected by the Privacy Act. The information is necessary to determine if you are eligible to participate in the program and helps to measure your success. The U.S. Department of Education has access to this information for accountability and TRIO-SSS program improvement purposes.

TRIO-SSS would like your permission to release and/or discuss family and student information for the following reasons:

1. TRIO-SSS must report eligibility and student progress information to the U.S. Department of Education to demonstrate program effectiveness on an annual basis.
2. TRIO-SSS tracks students' progress and provides support by viewing and maintaining student records and having discussions with faculty, staff, and other relevant individuals (including personal, financial, and medical issues).
3. Scholarship agencies, leadership, employment and educational programs contact TRIO-SSS to offer opportunities to TRIO-SSS students. TRIO-SSS can release student information (addresses, grades, ethnic background, economic status, etc.) to these organizations.
4. Some graduate schools and transfer college admission and financial aid offices will waive application fees for students from certain economic backgrounds. They will discuss admission and financial aid opportunities with TRIO-SSS staff, if we have permission to release student information.

I give TRIO-Student Support Services permission to release and/or discuss the information I provide on my behalf for the reasons listed above.
