Performance Reports for Educator Preparation

2023

Georgian Court University - CEAS

Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing

The goal of this report is to share the available state data on novice teachers that this Educator Preparation Provider (EPP) recommended for certification. To create the report, the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) has synthesized data from multiple sources. A list of these sources is available at the end of this report. Unless otherwise indicated, the data used in this report represents a one year cohort of teachers who earned a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing (CEAS) in the 2020-2021 school year who may have been employed in the 2022-2023 school year in a New Jersey public school. For additional details see further explanation in the glossary on the last page.

This report provides information in the following key areas:

Provider Profile

Information that applies to all teacher preparation programs at the institution such as mission and location.

Mission^{1a}:

Georgian Court University's School of Education is a values-driven graduate and undergraduate learning community that inspires intentional excellence and prepares caring, competent, and qualified educators for service in P-12 schools as teachers, educational service providers, and administrators. Our academic programs integrate theory and best practice. They provide educators the knowledge and skill base to enable all P-12 students to achieve academic and personal goals according to their potential and to live, work, and succeed in an ever-changing and increasingly diverse, global, and technology-mediated society. Our scholarship, service, and collaborative efforts seek to improve teaching and learning. Upon completion of our educator preparation programs, candidates will: (1) Acquire the content knowledge they intend to teach; (2) Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the characteristics of diverse learners; (3) Apply pedagogical knowledge to create effective learning environments that are responsive to the needs of all learners; and (4) Demonstrate caring, reflective practice.

^{1a} The mission statement was provided to the NJDOE by the institution through the application process to become an approved teacher preparation provider.
