

Neal Steed, MBA, CPA, Esq., CSEP

104 Laurel Lane, South Plainfield, NJ 07080 • Neal@SteedCPA.com • Cell: 732-689-0166

Experience:

Georgian Court University

Assistant Professor of Business – Tenure Track, January 2014 – August 2018; August 2019-Present

Department Chair, Business Administration, Accounting & Economics, May 2016 – May 2018

- Teaching of various business topics including Business Law, Managerial Accounting, Principals of Accounting, Accounting Info Systems, and Taxation for both graduate and undergraduate programs.
- Department Chair – Business Admin, Accounting, & Economics 2016-2018
- Chair of School of Business Curriculum Committee (2015/16)
- Parliamentarian for Faculty Assembly (2014-18)

New Jersey City University

Assistant Professor of Accounting – Tenure Track, August 2018-May 2019

- Teaching topics include Business Law, Accounting Info Systems, and Taxation.
- Chair of department Curriculum and Assessment committee.

Neal Steed – Attorney at Law, South Plainfield, NJ

Sole Practitioner, November 2013 - Present

- Assist clients with legal issues including taxation, estate planning, commercial formation, real estate transactions and contract review.

Neal Steed – CPA, Accounting and Consulting, South Plainfield, NJ

Sole Practitioner, January 2012 - Present

- Preparation of Individual and Business tax returns.
- Minimization of tax through strategic planning.
- Preparation of comprehensive estate plans to meet client goals.

Klatzkin & Co LLP, Hamilton, NJ

Senior Tax Accountant, August 2006 – January 2012

- Audit, review, and compilation of client financial statements.
- Research complex tax issues involving sales and use tax, federal income taxes, estate and inheritance taxes, and state taxes to resolve tax questions.
- Communicate with IRS agents, either orally or through written correspondence, to resolve various tax disputes to the satisfaction of clients.
- Completion of 1040, 1041, 1065, 1120, 706, 709 and corresponding state tax returns to minimize tax liability for clients.
- Supervise staff and interns through delegation and review of assignments, such as preparation of tax returns and related work papers.

Lab-Volt Systems Inc., Farmingdale, NJ

Software Engineer, July 1998 - June 2004

- Management of four multimedia software developers including review and scheduling of assigned tasks.

Neal Steed, MBA, CPA, Esq., CSEP

104 Laurel Lane, South Plainfield, NJ 07080 • Neal@SteedCPA.com • Cell: 732-689-0166

- Simultaneous development of multiple product lines to successfully meet both business and client needs.

Education:

- August, 2017 Georgian Court University - Lakewood
- Masters of Business Administration
- Admitted to Delta Mu Delta, International Honor Society in Business

- May, 2013 Rutgers University School of Law – Newark
- Juris Doctor
- Member of Phi Alpha Delta International Law Fraternity

- December, 2006 Georgian Court University - Lakewood
- Bachelors of Science in Accounting & Computer Science
- Honors: Summa Cum Laude

Publications/Presentations:

- Elmore, A., & Steed, N. (2017). • Effectively Integrating Social Media and Web Based Technologies into the classroom without Lawyers: #SixStepModel. The Transitional Journal of Business, 2, 11-20.

- Accounting Information Systems and [the] use of supporting schedules in Excel for Multiyear Transactions,
Cathy McQuillen, Neal Steed. Presented at AIS Educators Conference 2015.

- Reducing the compartmentalization in accounting education through the use of multi-discipline accounting information system scenarios,
Neal Steed, Susan E.O. Field. Presented at AIS Educators Conference 2016.

- Effectively Integrating Social Media and Web Based Technologies into the classroom without Lawyers: #SixStepModel,
Ashley Elmore, Neal Steed. Presented ABR Fall 2017 Conference.

Additional Information:

US Navy, Nuclear Machinist Mate 2nd Class - Honorable Discharge
Licensed CPA in NJ, License #20CC03413800
Admitted: PA Bar – 316672, US Tax Court – SN0248, NJ - 077702013
2nd Degree Black Belt, World Karate Academy
3rd Degree Black Belt, American Taekwondo Association